Directions & Parking

Venue Address:

Columbia Yacht Club

111 N Jean Baptiste Pointe du Sable Lake Shore Dr.
Chicago, IL 60601

The Columbia Yacht Club is a historic ice-cutting ferry docked at DuSable Harbor, located where Lower East Randolph Street meets the Lakefront Trail.

To reach the ship, walk across the Lakefront Trail (please watch for bike traffic) and board from the adjacent dock.

Parking & Payment Instructions

Parking is available in the DuSable Harbor Parking Lot located beneath the Lake Shore Drive overpass for a flat rate of $25 (credit card only), valid for up to 24 hours.

To access the lot, use the service road off Lower East Randolph Street next to (west of) the Lake Shore Drive on-ramp. Do not take the on-ramp to Lake Shore Drive.

From the parking lot, walk east under the on-ramp to the Lakefront Trail and continue approximately 0.2 miles to the Yacht Club.

Walking & Ride Share Tips

Walking:

If walking from downtown, use Google Maps in Walking mode, as the pedestrian route is not intuitive. If walking from downtown, use Google Maps in Walking mode. We recommend walking through Maggie Daley Park and heading toward the lake via the park's northeast exit to reach the Columbia Yacht Club.

Ride Share:

Enter "DuSable Harbor" as your destination and ask your driver to drop you at the east end of Lower East Randolph Street where it meets the Lakefront Trail. The Columbia Yacht Club is the large ship visible in the harbor.

Driving Directions to DuSable Harbor Parking
